Mr. and Mrs. Neeley Moving To A Ranch

This week Mr. and Mrs. Tom Neeley are leaving Hamlin to make their home on a ranch twelve miles from Abilene. For the past two months Mr. Neeley has been in charge of the ranch and has also been busy getting a new home ready for them to occupy. The Neeleys are long time citizens of Hamlin. In fact, Tom grew up with the town, and was in business here for a number of years. For the past few years he has been market man in the Clover Farm and Terrell Grocery here, and is now preparing to raise some choice beef, and he should know how, because he knows what it takes.

For several years Mrs. Neeley has operated a dressmaking shop in her home here, and while her friends and customers will miss her service, they are happy for her to have the change, and rest from this work which her new home will give.

Hamlin Lions Club Is Gathering Old Keys

Members of the Hamlin Lions club are actively working at the job of collecting old keys for use in the war effort.

Each member was assigned at least three places of business in town where they must place a jar or other container for receiving the keys, and be responsible for their delivery to the club.

No time limit has been set on the key campaign, but two or three weeks should be sufficient to get in most old keys.

You are asked to leave your keys at any place of business—they will all have a Lions club jar.

Mrs. D. Freedman Died In Washington City

Mrs. C. C. Prater has received a letter from Eddie Freedman saying that his mother, Mrs. D. Freedman had died last week (that would be week before last) in their home in Washington City. This family resided in Hamlin several years, operating a grocery-dry goods store here, and owned a brick residence on Central Avenue. Information is that an operation was performed for cancer of the stomach from which she never recovered.

M. Y. Hill and wife have recently moved from Aspermont to Hamlin to make their home. Mr. Hill is the market man for the Terrell Grocery. They will find Hamlin a pleasant little city to live in.

Junior Class Reports On Sponsorship Royal Night

On October 9, 1942, Hamlin High school turned out for a scrap metal drive. Each class worked from 10 A. M. until 4 P. M. The seniors brought in the most scrap metal and got 500 votes on their queen. The juniors, 75 votes; the sophomores, 200; and the freshmen, 350 votes.

On Oct. 31 the junior class presented "The Royal Night". The voting for the queens was not like it had been in the past. Instead of voting by pennies, the public voted with ballots. Every person that bought a ticket was entitled to vote. On the back of the tickets were names of the four queens. The person that voted would select the queen he wanted and scratch the other three names. All of this was done at the entrance of the building.

When all ballots were in, they were counted and showed the following results:

Seniors 177
Juniors 146
Freshmen 180

Each class gave a stunt. The seniors presented a burlesque of the coronation. There was much laughing when boys dressed in evening gowns came prancing down the aisles.

The juniors presented a school-room scene called "Why Teachers Go Nuts". The pupils gave crazy answers to all questions asked,

Better Keep Posted Red Cross Service

Proposed 1943 budget, and organization of new special services of Jones County Red Cross, following national plan, are to be discussed at monthly executive board meeting in Stamford November 9th.

Oran A. Dean, chapter chairman, of Anson, will preside and representatives from Anson, Hamlin, Lueders, Hawley and Stamford are expected. Field directors and Red Cross local chapters will assist soldiers and their dependents to prepare official application form under Servicemen's Dependents Allowance Act signed by the President June 23, 1942, Washington Red Cross authorities have just announced.

Miss Hybernia Grace, Jones Co. home service chairman, is being supplied by the War Department with official forms and a booklet explaining provisions of the law. Application for a family allowance should be made by the soldier in every case where practicable. In certain instances, however, the application may be made by relatives or dependents. Soldiers on duty overseas may obtain application forms from their commanding officers. Relatives or dependents may obtain application forms from nearest army installation or their local Red Cross Chapter.

Pending grant of allowances to dependents of servicemen, Red Cross chapters in nearly 4,000 communities are prepared to aid families who might otherwise suffer hardship because of the soldier's military service.

Elected Senator

HON. PAT BULLOCK
Of Snyder

It was a six-man race for Senator in our 24th District Tuesday.

Pat Bullock of Snyder got the edge on Frank Roberts, Howard Davison, Charlie Jones, Cecil Lotief and Cleve Callaway.

Pat Bullock's name was on two ballots — For State Representative and for Senator. Elected on both — now he will resign as Representative and force a special election in that district.

To Make War On Rats In Jones County Soon

Tentative dates for a county wide rat campaign have been set with the assistance of Mr. Neighbors of the Fish and Wildlife Service. Nov. 23 to 28, City of Hamlin; Nov. 30 to Dec. 12, City of Stamford; Dec. 14 to 19, City of Anson and county.

Each of the three towns, Hamlin, Stamford and Anson will conduct their own campaign under the direction and help of a representative of the Fish and Wildlife Service. The County campaign will be under the guidance of the Victory Council and the Community and Neighborhood victory leaders.

Detailed plans for the cities and the county will be worked out within the next few days.

It is thought that these dates will be excellent for the control of the enormous rat population of the Co. since most of the barn and house rats that are now in the field will be driven in to the farmsteads and shelter by cold bad weather and it will be easy to get the poison to them.

230 Men Jones Co. Men In Flying School

Lubbock Army Flying School, November 2—230 men have been enlisted at Anson in the past five weeks, most of them from Jones Co.

They filled all kinds of jobs in civilian life, bankers, farmers, dry goods men, ranchmen, clerks, bookkeepers, mechanics, ship and airplane builders—and now at Lubbock their jobs are just as varied.

Among those enlisting from Anson and routes, seventy; from Hamlin and routes, 44; from Stamford, 46; from Lueders, 9; from Avoca, 12; and from Hawley, 14.

Pipers Lose Game To Stamford Bull Dogs

The first loss of the season was sustained by the Hamlin Pied Pipers at the hands of the Stamford Bull Dogs last Friday night in the Stamford stadium. Sparked by Boot Rogers and Bob Lee, the Bull Dogs scored in the first quarter and again in the fourth. Both tries for extra points were good. Score, 14 to 0.

A blocked Hamlin punt on the Hamlin 20 yard line set up the first score for the Bull Dogs. The second touchdown in the last quarter followed a sustained drive, with Rogers and Lee sharing honors carrying the ball.

Hamlin's Pied Pipers never seriously threatened to score, but long drives on two occasions gave Piper fans cause for hope. Stamford's much talked of line was really in there working and when Hamlin plays succeeded in piercing the line, line-backers quickly closed the gap and nailed the ball carrier.

Everything considered, it was a pretty good foot ball game and most of the Piper fans were glad the score could be held to only two touchdowns.

Tonight (Friday) the Pipers meet the Seymour Panthers in the local gridiron, and although it is not a conference game, a lively contest is expected.

Delegates to the county convention, the elected delegates will select the county committee who will head next year's AAA program.

"We have a tough battle to fight on our farms next year and we need our best leaders on AAA committees to help out," the secretary explained.

Mrs. Ball Read Famous Poem At Rotary Club

Wednesday the chief part of the Rotary program was the review and the delivery of the famous poem, "The Murder of Lidice", by Edna St. Vincent Millay, given by Mrs. Clem Ball.

As we all may understand, this poem was composed in memory of the murder of the town of Lidice in Czechoslovakia on June 10, 1942. A whole town is reported to have been destroyed by the Germans in anger for the assassination of the killer, Heidrich, somewhere in that community.

Mrs. Ball has given several book reviews in Hamlin and elsewhere, and each time her audience feels that the last one was the best one. The Club enjoyed this type of program very much.

Closing Year's Work At The Methodist Church

Next Sunday will be the last Sunday of this Conference Year for the Methodist church. It has been a very successful year in many respects. All finances of the church are paid in full up to date. Approximately $5,000 has been raised for all purposes. We had a fine revival, especially in the church, in the summer when there were 25 reclamations, conversions and additions to the church. Thirty members have been received into the church. The Sunday school, Woman's Society of Christian Service, Wesleyan Service Guild, Young People, and Laymans' work have been very successfully carried on. Just recently new carpets have been laid in the church by the W. S. C. S. and the church windows and doors painted at a cost of about $325.00. A fine spirit of fellowship and co-operation is manifest throughout the entire church work and membership.

This is Bro. Harrell's second year as the pastor of the Methodist church here and has been a very happy and successful year in many respects, he reports. The Annual Conference convenes in Sweetwater on November the 11th. A. B. Carlton is delegate and Herman McBride is associate delegate. The Conference sessions will be presided over by Bishop Ivan Lee Holt of Dallas and the final session will be on Sunday, Nov. 15th., when the appointment of preachers of the North West Texas Conference will be made by the Bishop and District Superintendents who form the Cabinet.

Mrs. Melvin Cobb, a sister of R. J. McIntyre, returned to her home in Cushing, Okla., Monday after a visit of five weeks here. Mrs. Cobb was accompanied by a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Vincent Cobb.

THIS WEEK

A LITTLE BIT ABOUT

This

AND A LITTLE BIT OF

THAT

THE WAR—

As We See It,

The war this week has been a mixture of killing and politics. Just which has done the most harm to America, only time can tell.

The killing war this week has been booming on at least three fronts, and it seems clear that Our Nations are getting the best of the Germans and Japs, to say nothing about ignoring the Italians. The only thing we will take time to say about the Italians—they did ask for a quiet spell to bury their dead in the desert sands of Africa.

It always does one good to make a prediction and later see that prediction come true. You remember some weeks, maybe months ago, this paper predicted that Field Marshal Rommel would be cut to pieces before he could get out of Egypt. Remember? Also we prognosticated that the Germans would never take Stalingrad and the Caucasus, but on that we crossed our fingers by saying maybe they can do it but by heck, it would take so long and cost so many lives and material that it would be a death blow to the Hitlerites. It seems we prognosticated correctly.

The big push is on. After many weeks of accumulating force in Egypt, the English, the Americans, Australians, Indians and South Africans, and others, have "busted" through and old Rommel is on the run.

Rommel's losses are reported to be:

9,000 captured.

600 planes lost.

260 tanks destroyed or captured.

270 guns and 50,000 tons of shipping sunk.

The trip across the desert has started again and this time it will be for keeps. Never again will the United Forces back up in that quarter. Some more predicting. The next step is to take and hold complete control of the Mediterranean, which will be the beginning of the end of old Mussso. and Germany and perhaps France.

We say "France". There is enough evidence to prove that the French are not playing the game with their friends and will have to be "sat upon."

The Russians are still fighting and dying. They have proved the salvation of not only England but maybe America. They are not whipped, and will yet prove their rugged strength and valor and will wreck havoc on their mortal enemies.

More than ever America must realize that our big fight is with Japan. Japan has done us more hurt, so far, than all other injuries in the 166 years of our existence put together. More hurts are to be felt and we had as well expect it, prepare for it, and make up our minds that the little Yellow Men will hold fight in their hearts a hundred years after they get the licking we are going to give them. Gosh we would hate for this nation to be in the shoes of old Japan. Really not many Americans want to be mean to anybody, but that people has got to be shown that their "stuff does not go with Free America".

The election in the United States is over now; some few have gotten political revenge, and maybe we can now go about winning the war. Envy and green-eyed hatred is still rampant in this nation and blind selfishness is hurting as badly as the slant-eyes.

A Vital Right

Natural resources are a basic cause of war. Nations which don't have them strive to gain them; nations which have them try to keep them; war itself cannot be waged to a successful termination without their products. From this, the conclusion could easily be drawn that natural resources are a curse. They most decidedly are when they are exploited by a few crazed maniacs with hypnotic power over millions of people.

But the use to which our natural resources here in America have been put during the last century and a half, show that our oil, coal and metal mines, timber, water power, etc., can be the greatest of blessings. Never has the world seen such comfort and security for the common man as has been attained by their use in this country. All of the creative genius of free men centered on securing a rising plane of existence for the individual. A form of government and a "way of doing business" made it possible to satisfy this urge. The opportunity for every man to make his living independently and free of government domination, is our basic law. This protects our system of free enterprise. As long as it is preserved, officialism cannot control votes to destroy it.

Our industries were developed to their present gigantic productivity by countless men—unknown men—free men. Until war came, every ounce of the collective energy of these men went toward making a better life for the common citizen. This is as it should have been, and will be again, providing our people, while making every sacrifice necessary to win the war, cling to one vital right from which stems all other rights—the right of every American citizen in peace time to be the master of his own destiny, not the servant of a socialized state as in Germany.

Scrap

There are frequent reports about certain people in possession of scrap iron—using the expression "if they want it, let 'em come get it." Now when any person says "they" they seem to think they are not "we". It is now "we" and not they . . . just as much one person as the other unless some one is in love with Hitler and old Mussso. Scrap iron now is high but when the war is over scrap iron will not bring much. No body need give their scrap—sell it if you want cash.

An Appalling Situation

Groups or individuals who seek even transitory gain during the present conflict, are a decided threat to the ultimate outcome and to the peace.

Representatives of organized labor are frankly striving to bulwark their groups against post-war conditions, at the expense of the present war production. Regardless of consequences, they demand and have been getting ever-increasing wages on the theory that they have a "right" to keep fully abreast of the rising cost of living. They are accumulating, in the name of unions, gigantic tax-exempt reserves. They are accountable to no one for the disposition of these funds. The money can be used for the direct benefit of the rank-and-file members or it can be used in the evil ramifications of bureaucratic politics. Many labor organizers deliberately intend to put labor, and more specifically themselves, in the saddle after the war. To put it bluntly, if they have their way, no man returning from the Army will be able to get a job until he has joined and paid heavy tribute to a union boss.

Dear Sir: I will drop you a few lines to let you know how glad I am to receive the Herald. There is nothing more helping to a soldier than finding out the home town news through the Herald.

I see from reading the Herald that Hamlin has a good many boys in the service. I see Max Carlton every now and then. I say "Hello" to all the boys through the Herald.

Well Sir, I will say so long for now. So keep sending the Herald and we'll keep fighting.

Miss Mary Lenard is very proud of her grandsons. She says she has 14 in some kind of the service in this war or are doing war work. Delbert Kite, one of the youngest, has been heard from. The Herald got to snoop in on a letter that Teddy Russell had written his parents, last week. Teddy is at Tonkawa training as Liaison member in the air force, and will likely be sent to some other point maybe in Texas. Teddy is having a great time. One of the interesting features of his letter was about two boys from Europe. One a Belgian and the other from England. They too are learning fast. Their pay is about half what our boys get, and they seldom ever laugh. A joke was told in their presence and one turned to the other and said dryly, "I say, ol' chap, these Americans are jolly fellows, eh what?" The other replied, "Yes, ol' thing, I mean really they are". All the boys were being entertained by some church affair one night and the people

They asked the London boy to make a speech, and he said without cracking a smile, "I do not have a speech to give you but I say, I'm jolly God-dam glad to be here." Teddy said that boy did not realize he was "cussin'" and never wrinkled his face, but the crowd roared with laughter. She may have changed her location to escape her Hamlin soldiers, sailors, marines, and others.

Arle Cassle and Truett May are now two more Hamlin sailormen. Reddy: That, Adolf, is the hum of power by which you will meet your doom. Power in the air . . . power afoot, on tap to build more planes, more tanks, more guns, more ships. It's the hum of American men and machines at work—twenty-four hours a day!

Adolf: Ah, but I haff power, too!

Reddy: Listen, Adolf! America has more power than you and all your stooges and conquered countries put together. Free men and women are using that power, turning out weapons of war in thundering quantities, because they want to stay free.

Adolf: Yes, but I haff men and women working for me, too.

Reddy: Slaves, Adolf. They toil with bayonets at their back. They have no spirit for the work. They are slowed down by hunger. The machines they work are worn by years of war. Manpower can never do the work of electric power!

Adolf: Sure, but I got the jump on you! I command everything—

Reddy: That's where we differ, Adolf. Your system is based on state slavery and political control and operation of all natural resources, industry, religion and education. In West Texas . . . and in all America . . . we respect the rights of the individual and the institutions he has created. Over here, we believe in free enterprise under government regulation . . . a system under which men and women know they'll be rewarded for initiative, ambition and production.

It's a powerful incentive, Adolf, and it's helped make America power-full. Consider electricity, for example. It's helped give West Texas homes about twice or three times as much electric service for their money as they used to get ten or fifteen years ago.

American business management is behind that hum you hear, Adolf, and its success depends on giving more for less cost. It's a hum that will beat upon you until freedom is restored to the earth. It's the hum of fate, Adolf!

The sixteen-inch coast gun is the most powerful of all American guns and costs about $2,000,000 each. It will throw a shell weighing up to a ton many miles. The Coast Guard also has an eight-inch mobile railway gun which will hurl a heavy projectile about 18 miles.

For defense of our homes, the Coast Guard needs many of these powerful weapons. You can do your part to help pay for them by investing at least ten percent of your income in War Bonds and Stamps every payday. U. S. Treasury Department

It is imperative that the ship lanes be kept free of ice. With American troops occupying Iceland and the Navy using the northern route for transportation of supplies to Russia, ice breakers are essential to Naval operations. The ice breaker is a specially constructed ship with heavily armored bows and powerful engines that crush the ice floes rather than ram through them.

Ice breakers of the Kickapoo class operating in the North Atlantic cost approximately $10,000,000. You can help our Navy build these ships by investing at least ten percent of your income in War Bonds every payday. Enroll in the payroll savings plan or apply at the nearest bank or postoffice. U. S. Treasury Department

The "Stovepipe," as the 60-millimeter trench mortar is commonly known, is used by our infantry for close-in fighting. It fires a 2.4-pound shell at the rate of about 35 a minute.

The mortar fires its projectile in a U-shaped arc and for this reason may be successfully camouflaged behind an obstruction. It costs about $500. You and your neighbors, joining together, can buy many of these effective weapons for use of our Army. Investing at least ten percent of your income in War Bonds every payday will do the job. Get on the firing line on the home front... join the "Ten Percent Club." U. S. Treasury Department

At Midway, in the Coral Sea and from General MacArthur's headquarters in Australia, the Navy patrol bombers are searching out enemy bases, ships and transports and "completing their mission." The Navy Patrol Bomber costs about $750,000.

Our factories are turning out hundreds of these bombing ships. Yet it is only through your investment in War Bonds and Stamps you can do your share to help provide patrol bombers for our rapidly increasing air force. Invest at least ten percent of your income every payday in these Government securities and do your bit to win and shorten the war. Our airmen are depending on your help.

POT SHOTS FROM McCAULEY

—BY GEO. DARDEN—

We read in the Readers Digest an article which stated that 95 per cent of the hurried war marriages of World War No. I went on the rocks. Well, we don't know about that and the only comment we have to make is: If you are twenty one and weigh a hundred pounds and are not afraid of your horses—remember we are still Justice of the Peace in the City of McCauley.

Tomorrow, Tuesday, is election day. In fact, we didn't realize the election was so near and we failed to express our opinion in this column in the Senator's race and now all we can do is predict. So here it is folks: The next Senator will be either Pat Bullock or Howard Davison, and we are hoping it is Davison.

Boys home on leave from their from their training base at Lubbock were: Tillman Henson, Glendon Hemphill, Albert Gallaway Jr., Buddy Gibson, Leon Peterson and A. S. Smith Jr.

Milton Webb and Cecil Wood were inducted last week into the army. Milton made the grade but Cecil was turned down on account of heart trouble and high blood pressure.

Miss Katie Atkins leaves this week for Washington as a civil service employee. Her sister, Lillian, left last week for the capitol. She too is in civil service and is in the employ of the F. B. I.

Mr. and Mrs. Burl Bunkley and daughter left for Weinert, Texas, to make their home. Burl will manage the R. B. Spencer Lumber Co. in that city. For the past several years he was manager of the Spencer Lumber Co. in McCauley.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson and daughter of Longworth are moving to McCauley and Mr. Jackson will manage the Spencer Co. here.

Alf Hemphill is on the sick list and is confined to his bed.

Mrs. Frank Maberry Jr. visited her husband last week in San Angelo. Frank is an employee of the Santa Fe railroad in that city.

Mrs. Greed Smith visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Maberry last week end. Mrs. Smith is manager of the Sweet Briar Shop in Abilene.

Mrs. Lon Andress honored her daughter Frankie Jo on her 6th birthday last Saturday week. 28 children were present to celebrate the happy occasion.

Olga Fannin was crowned carnival queen at the high school last Friday night. She is a sophomore. Other queens were Mollie Sue Keen freshman; Bennie Ruth Bell, junior queen, and Bess Darden was senior queen. About one hundred forty-eight dollars was realized from the carnival.

The senior class rings have arrived and are said to be the most beautiful rings in the history of the school. However, that is senior talk.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Powers and daughter were shopping in Abilene last Saturday.

Dr. Hudson of the Stamford hospital spoke at the home nursing school at the Baptist church last Friday. Dr. Hudson stressed the importance of the home nursing course and the important part that women will have to play in this war. Mrs. Clayton Roberts of Plasterco is teaching the school.

Mr. and Mrs. John Miles have moved to Hamlin where they will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Waldrop have purchased the John Miles home and are moving into their new home.

Jim Brown, who works on the county road, has purchased the E. C. Waldrop home.

Mrs. Lewis Gist (formerly Ruby Rhoten) is ill in a Sweetwater hospital, and visiting her this week were: Mr. and Mrs. Jack Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Rhoten, and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Rhoten.

Jim Griffin is confined to his bed the past several days, and has been seriously ill.

These are days when we think that the war is going in favor of the Allies, and then maybe the next day we are all in the dumps about the war situation. We all surely must realize the hell that the boys in the Solomons are going through with, and sometimes we get down right mad when we think of the members of Congress who voted time and time again against fortifying the Pacific outposts.

And there were military leaders who led the public to believe that our Navy could and would lick the Jap fleet within three weeks, and we wonder why the leaders would blind the public to the Jap threat and the Jap war machine which surely they must have known something about. And if they didn't know—what was going on outside of the United States, then they were too ignorant to represent the citizens of these United States.

It's going to take one unified command in the Pacific and it is no time for politics, envy and jealousy. The people have responded to every call and will continue to respond as we know it is life and death struggle and we do not want to wake up as France did, but the citizens are going to demand intelligence and forethought and these things we must have to win.

Why isn't the defense jobs thru out the nation working at top speed? There are millions of dollars wasted. Men and women are employed on some of these defense jobs and with a big salary who do absolutely nothing and we do mean nothing except walk around and look wise or sit at a desk and sleep. Now this may sound untrue, but in many cases it's a fact, and if you don't believe it, then ask some of the folks who have been employed on one of these jobs. To sum it all up, we can't win a war when folks are money mad. The boys coming back from the front are dumb-founded at the way folks are going about trying to make more money when the boys out yonder lay in the fox holes and wish for more guns, tanks and planes. WAKE UP AMERICA.
